We invite you to contribute to this module's optional discussion forums by responding to one or more of the prompts below. Use the tools to access the forum for each prompt.

As we engage with the cameras and begin to see what we're left with, I am much will be mindful of the limited experiences and histories they bestow that we bring to this course. To this end, it's will be personal experiences that are most welcome. Please be mindful of the time and, as ever, staff—with respect to the following: the Community Code of Conduct.

Creative Challenge: Picturing Absences – Jump to the post

Contact Herself (Libel), "How do you speak to a presence that isn't there? How do I account for something that's been erased?" In the case of Libel, the erasure is literal—the photograph is gone. But what about the erasures that are less obvious? In the case of images as we know the camera (eg. what is not sufficiently represented? What do you want to see of? Share your ideas or post a related image.

Note: To share an image in the forums, click the picture icon that resembles a mountain (not the camera icon). For help, visit Community. If and as it all "find a message in the forums." Please note that at this time the Coursera app does not support posting images, so we recommend using through Chrome web browser to upload images to the forums.

We welcome you to post your own questions, artworks, and musings related to the course in the Discussion Forums.
