Congratulations on completing Modern Art & Ideas!

We hope you enjoyed looking at art through a variety of themes—Places & Spaces, Art & Identity, Transforming Everyday Objects, and Art & Society—that will inspire you to make new discoveries and connections in your daily life.

We encourage you to enroll in another MoMA course and stay connected with these MoMA resources:

- Explore MoMA Magazine to read, watch, and listen to passionate perspectives on art, artists, and ideas that shape culture today.
- Use art terms to get answers to your questions about what different materials, genres, and other art terms illustrated with examples from MoMA's collection.
- Hear artists, curators, and others speak about the Museum's collection and exhibitions on MoMA's audio playlists.
- Look closer and longer at artworks with MoMA's audio playlist of verbal descriptions.
- From studio visits and artist interviews, to behind-the-scenes conservation work, to how-to tutorials, discover the modern and contemporary paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints, photographs, films, architecture, design, media, and performance art that help define and inspire culture on MoMA's YouTube Channel .
- In MoMA's Magazine Podcast hear from contemporary artists and thinkers who share perspectives about topics ranging from emotions to sustainability.
- A Piece of Work, a podcast hosted by Broad City's Abbi Jacobson, is everything you wanted to know about modern and contemporary art but were afraid to ask.
- Subscribe to MoMA's newsletters to get art and ideas in your inbox, and follow MoMA on Instagram, Facebook, and What'sApp.

If you have enrolled to receive a certificate for this course, you must complete the final project assessment.

We hope you take part in one last reflection on the course, and share how your understanding of modern art may have changed.
