As we engage with the content and begin conversations with others, we must all be mindful of the lived experiences and intersecting identities that we bring to this course. To that end, it is of the utmost importance that we treat everyone in our community—including all learners and course staff—with respect by following the Coursera Code of Conduct.

Reflect on One Subject, Many Perspectives — link to thread

Reflect on your responses to the art and ideas we explored in this module.

- What was new or surprising to you?
- Which of the artists or works particularly resonate with you or open up different perspectives on art or the world today?
- What new questions did this week raise for you?

Creative Challenge: Shoot for the Moon — link to thread

You've explored many ways that artists have photographed the moon. Now add your photograph of the moon! Take or share a photograph of the moon. Feel free to interpret this assignment creatively—maybe the moon won't be visible at all in your photograph, or moonlight will be an element in your process. The sky is not your limit! Tell us about your process and the decisions you made.

Note: To share an image in the forums, click the picture icon that resembles a mountain (not the camera icon). For help, visit this page and scroll to "Post an image in the forums." Please note that at this time the Coursera app does not support posting images, so we recommend using the Google Chrome web browser to upload images to the forums.

We welcome you to post your own questions, artworks, and musings related to the course in the Module 2 forums.
