Optional Discussion Prompts and Creative Challenges

We invite you to contribute to this module's optional discussion forums by responding to one or more of the prompts below. Use the links to access the forum for each prompt.

As we engage with the content and begin conversations with others, we must all be mindful of the lived experiences and intersecting identities that we bring to this course. To that end, it is of the utmost importance that we treat everyone in our community—including all learners and course staff—with respect by following the Coursera Code of Conduct.

Reflect on Constructing Narratives, Challenging Histories — link to thread

Reflect on your responses to the art and ideas we explored this week.

- What was new or surprising to you?
- Which of the artists or works particularly resonate with you or open up different perspectives on art or the world today?
- What new questions did this week raise for you?

Creative Challenge: Create a Portrait — link to thread

In A Card for J.R. Plaza by Iñaki Bonillas and Untitled Film Stills by Cindy Sherman, the artists use photography to enact different identities. Using any camera you have available, create a portrait or self-portrait. Share the image, describe the choices you made, and what you aimed to convey and why.

Note: To share an image in the forums, click the picture icon that resembles a mountain (not the camera icon). For help, visit this page and scroll to "Post an image in the forums." Please note that at this time the Coursera app does not support posting images, so we recommend using the Google Chrome web browser to upload images to the forums.

We welcome you to post your own questions, artworks, and musings related to the course in the Module 5 forums.
